The Chinese temperament and bad basis of a triennial contract with Government, alcohol are to each other as the flame to gunit has been endowed with the control of a powder. We have often wondered whether valuable monopoly. It is notorious that in kny gentlemen who subscribe to anti-opium former triennial periods the prefits from the societies for the problematical salvation of the opium contract have been very great. The Chicaman from what in the main does him to undertaking of necessity must be a speculative harm, have any interests in spirit export tradeone, but the Government should do no more to the Far East. Amonget the passenopium revenue, the Farm doing all that out of gers was a police-sergeant, Kitao Toshimori, the profit margin over and above its periodical nged 38, who was being invalided to his home in monthly payments to Government. The present situation is for the G vernment a very difficult one, as it was also on the previous occasion, wher, however, the decisive step of placing an officer in charge as Receiver of Opium Revenues had not been taken. Wer have yet to learn how far the Farmers and the Government are co-operating, or whether there is to be an entire throwing up of the Farms by contractors. In the latter case, how is the Government to improvise a system of supervision of all the retail opium shops, and how is it to create a department to check smuggling in place of the Farm chintings? Whatever happens, unless the Formers have had no legiti mate reasons in failing to implement their contract, the opium revenue of this Settlement for the remainder of the year must be placed in position that is precarious, if not worse than that. The contract gives power to the Governor or Officer Administering the Government to suc the sureties to the contract and their administrators and assigns, as well as the Farmer and his executors and administrators, and also to determine the contract and dispose of the rights and privileges accruing under that instrument to other persons. The situation at p esent appears to be that in which the Government may feel itself called to take the action authorised in the terms of the contract. If anything can persuade the Government of the disadvantage of a revenue farm it is the unplea-mant experience of the breakdown of the contract. This has happened on two consecutive contracts, and this very precariousness arising from the allocation of the Farm monopoly must impress upon the Government the fact that the risks of loss are much more upon its owa side than upon that of the contractor. The whole incident is one that serves to precipitate the consideration of that recommendation of the Straits Opium Commission which, while it does not find proved that the evils from the use of the opium have increased during the past decade," does state that the members of the Commission "consider that the circumstances surrounding the use of opium justily the Government in maintaining a closer and stricter control over it," and they therefore

"recommend that the present system of farming the opium revenue be abelished and that a Government monopoly of the preparation and distribution of chandu be substituted." We have often pointed out the great difficulties that will surround the control of the opium monopoly by the Government. It may at once be admitted that there would be no inducement to foster the consumption of opium, nor would there be so much risk of informers systematically planting chands on board ships elsewhere in order to reap the share of the buge fines that would be imposed on detection.

But the department that would administer a

WHAT IT WILL DO. A woman buys a sewing machine for what it will do; not as an article of furniture. A man carries a watch to tell him the time; not as an investment of surplus capital. The same principle when one is ill. We want the medicine or the treatment which will relieve and cure. The friend in need must be a friend indeed-something, or somebody, with a reputation, with a good record, with a history that justifies our confidence. There should be no guesswork in treating disease. People have the right to know what a medicine is, and what it will do, before they take it. It must have behind it an open record of benefit to others for the same diseases,—a series of cures that proves its merit and inspires confidence.

THE OPIUM COMMISSION.

We are indebted to the columns of the North China Daily News for the following leading article :- Within a short month and with less International Opium' Commission has finished its labours and its findings have been made known to the world. As soon as it was underlistening to the reports of the various delegarather than of seeking fresh evidence of its own accord, it was realized that the deliberations would not extend over any great length of time. The object of the Commission was to arrive at a common basis for action among "the various Powers concerned in dealing responsibility. with the opium question, and for this reason it was wise to extend its representative character. By the co-operation of Austria-Hongary, Italy, Persis, Russia and Siam requisite safeguards were taken against the had to pay for fighting in Connaught Road stultification by the subjects of these Govern. Thus constituted the Commission speaks | ing from Jose Sabino a purse containing $7,25 with authority, and if its resolutions do not by false pretences. fulfil all expectations, the reason should be WE are informed that Mr. Lan Chu Pak, at the part of the delegates. Of the thirteen nation versity Committee. alities represented it is not claimed that all were able to deliberate with 'equal' knowledge and influence; but the Governments of the countries chiefly interested may be congratulated on the choice of their representatives. When the full report of the proceedings comes to be PRINCE Su and Duke Tsai Tse together agreed jiro Miyaoka, The speech, published in ou issue of Saturday, with which Mr. Taus Kuo an introduced the Chinese proposals was a fine thetorical effort, while the res pective reports of Dr. Hamilton Wright and Mr. J. B. Brunyale, were worthy of any deliberative gathering in the world That the British delegation should hav been able to carry the Commission with it on most points is at once a tribute to the Govern ment's selection and a recognition of the paramount interest that Great Britain has in the opium question in any international gathering Where there was any tendency for friction to manifest itself, the cause was to be found in the difference in the instructions given to the separate delegations rather than in disagree ment on principles.

A study of the nine Resolutions reveals the fact that the Commission thoroughly approved of the President's diagnosis of the opium question, when he declared that the deli berations of the "international body marked the close of the emotional stage apthe substitution of the scientific stage, No reference has been included to the mora aspect of opium smoking; but starting from Special Mixture; Black Cat; The premise that public opinion is against the practice, the Commission sets out to assist the work of probibition. The complimentary icference to China's efforts in the same direction was a graceful tribute to the nation, which wil be readily endorsed by foreigners, but in the case of the Chinese, Government should be accepted only in conjunction with the able expose of existing conditions made in an early session by Bir Alexander Hosie. In the second and third Resolutions the respective Governments are recommended to take measures for the gradual suppression of the practice of opium of the Dai Nippon Sugar Refining Company | Paris. The hats were of cream straw trimmed smoking and a re-examination of existing is hopeless, and the Mitsui, Mitsu Bishi, and with roses and forgot-me-nots and finished systems of regulation is suggested in the light of the experience of other countries dealing the company, have at length declined to adwith the same problem; but the Commission vance the Y3,000,000 required and have with is careful to insist that no country is to feel obliged to rush through measures that might be wholly inexpedient in the special conditions obtaining. More definite is the expression of opinion that it is the duty of the Governments to obviate the smuggling of opium into countries where it is prohibited, by adopting reasonable measures at ports of departure, to prevent the shipment of the drug; while. any hesitation in denouncing opium is entirely removed when the Commission comes to con sider morphine, against which drastic measures are urged without reservation. In the remaining Resolutions foreign Governments are urged to close down opium divans in their Settlements in China-a measure aimed, presumably, at Japan-to deal with anti-opium remedies containing opium in these Concessions and to apply their pharmacy laws to their the proposal of the Chinese delegates that a scientific investigation should be made by a committee into the properties and effects of onium and into anti-opium remedies.

Where then does the International Opium Commission leave the opium question? the first place it marks a clear advance upon the Royal Commission of 1895, not so much by what it has achieved, but what it has left undone. Into the extent and effects of opium smoking it has refused to inquire. Excessive use of the drug is openly or tacitly admitted now to be an evil by almost every nation interested in the question, and total prohibition has come to be generally recognized as the only means of dealing effectively with that evil. The Commission endorses prohibition, but on The daily issue is delivered (rec when the address is lines that will commend them selves to levelheaded statesmen, while possibly leaving Iwell-meaning zealots deeply stirred with indignation. Among the latter there existed the belief that the Commission would endeasour arbitrarily to denounce treaties and assume executive functions in China. There could have been no more justification for a Commission on those lines than for an International Conference (to use Sir F. Swettenham's parallel) to inquire into the lynching and shooting of negroes. Public attention, however, has been drawn to the subject of opium smoking in a manner never attained before and while the British delegation stoutly refused to go beyond the letter of instructions, China need have no anxiety regarding British sympathy and willing. ness to help her in this "task of the greatest magnitude." She will find, indeed, a desire than three weeks devoted to plenary sessions the on the part of Great Britain to anticipate any assistance that she may require from her, so long as the "unswerving sincerity," to which testimony has been borne, is maintained. But stood that, its work would consist mainly of after this Commission the Chinese Government and those who would help it in the work tions and collating the knowledge obtained of opium suppression must cease to pay exclusive attention to what other Powers are doing or leaving undone, and must devote their efforts entirely to the progress of the movement in China. With the assistance that the Commission has given comes the greater

Sanitary Board Chinese Member's Probable RENOMINATION

ENORIAL IN PAYOUR OF MR. LAU CHU-PAK.

For some time that it has been known that Mr. Lau Chu-pak, whose

Mr. and Mrs. P. H. Holyoak, silver card care. | Sanitary | Board | expired on the 15th inst., would dot offer himself for re-appointment. As a matter of fact that gentleman had addressed the Government to that effect. Upon hearing his decision, the rapresentatives of the Chinese community in Hongkong were impelled to seek a re-consideration of Mr. Lau's decision. When personal persuasion failed, the leading Chinese resorted Dr. and Mrs. Jordan, silver ten set. Mr., to the last but not the least effective expedient left to them. They drew up a memorial addressed to the Government praying that Mr. Lau Joseph. 2 silvet vases. Messrs. Joseph and E. Chu pak may be induced to offer himself for re-appointment for another term of three years' on the Board as the respresentative of the Mr. and Mrs. Kempy coffee potin Nin Ellis. Chinese whom he had so efficiently served for a continuous period claix years. The principal merchants, members of the Nam Pak Hong. and the leading firms affixed their "chops " to Mrs. G. P. Lammert, 3 sweet forks, Mr. | the memorial, besides a large number of individual members of the native community whose names carry weight in the counsels of native affairs in the Colony, There were over 300 chors and an equally large number of signatories to the mamorial, "The memorial was forwarded to Government last week. Acceding to the prayers of the petition a copy was transmitted to Mr. Lau Chu-pak on Friday last under a covering letter from the Colonial Secretary which, in flattering terms to the Chinese representative on the Sanitary Board, requested bim to re-consider his decision. What that gentleman's precise seply to Government was we cannot state, having had no official information on the subject; but we understand that pressure of business and the numerous calls on his leisure hours precludes the possibility of his devoting the same degree of care and attention in the business of the Board as he has done in the past. Mr. Lan does not, however, contemplate final est rement from service on the advisory council to Govern ment on matters connected, with the sanitation of the Colony. All he desired was a one or two years' respite from the strengous duties incidental to the acceptance of office if they are to be conscientiously discharged.

At the invitation of the Governor, Mr. Lau Chu-pak was honoured with a privite conference with His Excellency at Government House yesterday. The outcome of the discussion demonstrates His Excellency's tactfulnessin endeavouring to serve the public interest. Wehave reason to believe Mr. Lan Chupak has almost practically yielded to the put lic desire, as represented by the Chinese memorial, to accept re-nomination for another term of office for three years upon certain nominal conditions which have not transpired and which are capable of modification in accordance with the exigencies of circumstance.

When a member of our staff visited Mr. Lau Chu pak at his office this alternoon to obtain confirmation of the matter related above, that gentleman naturally, with becoming modesty. did not care to enter into extended conversation regarding the subject. All our representative could gather from him was that he felt admiration for the industry which was responsible for the gathering of much information which he felt interested to learn but which he was not in a position to disprove.

REGATTA.

TO'THE EDITOR OF THE "HONGKONG TELEGRAPH." Dear Sir, - May I draw the attention of your readers to the fact that the Hongkong Regatta takes place at Lai-Chi-Kok on Salurday week? It is not so very long since the Regatta was a very popular event and great interest wis taken in rowing all over the Colony. Lately, however, times bave changed and people no. longer seem to care about it. Isn't it rather a pity that, this should be so and that so fine a sport should languish for want of encouragement? Rowing is as good-a sport to watch as foots ball or cricke'; and from those who take part in it, it requires as much skill and far more 6 silver liqueur glasses. Mr. and Mrs. Sawer, pluck; self-denial and keenness than either of those games. Why does it get so little oncouragement? It is very disappointing for men who bave trained hard and given up a good deal for rowing, if the Regatts, the chief event of their year, falls flat. Why shouldn't the forthcoming Regatta commence a new era of enthusiasm? -- Yours E. M. CARPENTER.

HONGKONG FIRE INSURANCE COMPANY, LIMITED.

ANNUAL MERTING

The fortisth ordinary meeting of shareholders in the Hongkong Fire Insurance Co., Ld., was held at the offices of the general managers this afternaan. The Hon. Mr. W. J Gresson presided. There were also present :- Sir Paul Chater, Messrs. H. P. White, F. Mailland, C.S. Gubbay (consulting committee), L. N. Leefe (secretary), Ho Fook, H. Percy Smith, C. Osmund, D. Guzdar, A. H. M. da Silva, J. M. E. Machado, J. Barton, F. Smyth, A. Tumer, A. O. Lang and Wong Leung-kim, representing in all 580 shares.

The Secretary read the notice of the meeting. The Chairman said :- Gentlemen,-The report and accounts having been in your hands for some days I will, with your permission follow the usual course and take them as read The year 1907 has, I am glad to say, been prosperous one for the company and this in spite of the continued depression in trade and the serious outbreaks of fire in the foreign owned and occupied property in Shanghai in which place-the company's interests are very considerable. The premium income is practically the same as that for 19:6, but losses are $33,000 less. The surplus of $330,232.90 is one of the best the Company has ever been able to show, and I trust the proposed appropriation meets, with your approval, viz, the payment of a dividend of $27.00 per share absorbing $116,000 and the transfer of $114,332.90 to augment the reserve fund. Business in the areas to which the Company's operations are confided does not call for any special comment on this occasion. Dull trade must of necessity have a contracting influence on our premium, income, and this I think afford, the explanation of the slight reduction that it seems probable, the completed figures for 19:8 will show but which should disappear directly the current. of trade flows more freely. The amount we carry forward does not compare favourably with previous years, but if unexpired risks run off without exceptional losses, the result for the year 1908 should be satisfactory. Before moving the adoption of the report and accounts I shall be pleased to reply to any questions that shareholders may wish to ask, There were no questions. The Chairman inoved the adoption of the report and accounts. Sir Paul Chaterseconded.

The motion was carried unanimously. Mr. Guzdar moved and Mr. Machado seconded the re-election of Sir Paul Chater, and Messrs. White, Maitland and Gubbay to the consulting committee. Adopted, ...

On the motion of Mr. Turner seconded by Mr. Lang Messrs. W. Hutton Potts and H. Pe cy Smith, P.C.A., were re-elected auditors. The Chairman: That concludes the business of the meeting, gentlemen. Dividend warrants can be had on application to morrow. Thank you for your attendance. * HIGH-CLASS CONCERT.

MUSICAL TREAT AT THE CITY HALL. The combination which the Herbert Withers' Concert Co. was able to bring together for th first time before the Hongkong public last night was an aggregation of the exponents of musical talents rarely before heard in the Colony. To have heard the 'celloist alone in his brilliant and remarkable rendition of the exquisite pieces with which he delighted the auditorium, was well worth the unstinted support of the entire. music-loving community of Hongkong. As it happened, however, the audience fell below the number which the high standard of merit. of the Concert Company, might reasonably have expected from their patrons in Hongkong. To the planofulte accompaniment of Mme. Elzy, Mr. Herbert Withers opened the programme with Greig's "Sonata," rendered with considerable techniques and which at once led his audience to expect the treat he was to provide for them in the later numbers in the course of the evening. Mr. Charles Beonatt sang with expression an Air from "The Marriage of Figure" (Mozert). In acceding to the demand for an encore he gave Lohr's " To my First Love " On th's occasion he accompanied his own song on he piano. The appearance of Madame Luisa Sobring on the stage evoked an outburst of applause. Her fine clear voice filled the house in the "Jewel Song" from "Faust' (Gounod). | 5 .- CANOE RACE .- 1 mile. This was immediately followed by the everbeautiful Bach-Gounod's "Ave Maiia" with. 'cello 'obligato by Mr. Withers. Madame Sobrino's clear enunciation, and powerful soprano voice found full scope in the inspiring song, which, with the masterfully rendered obligate by the celebrated 'celloist, must be voted the best item of an exceptionally well selected programme. Mr. Withers appeared again with two soli for 'cello, Godard's "Sur le Lac" and Popper's "Tarantella" called forth applause which the "virtuoso" could. not deny and, in graciously obliging the audito. | 8,- JUNIOR FOURS -- I mile. rium with an encore, he played another exquisite solo. As a pianiste of a high order Madame Elzy, showed her copubilities as a finished executionist in Rosenthal's "Irish Rhapsodia" which she played from memory. The applause which followed this plauoforte solo acclaimed the popular appreciation. The accomplished baritone, Mr. Chas. Bennett, made his second appearance in the course of the eyening, singing "Birds in the High Hall Garden (Somervell) and "Yeomen of England" (Edw. German). 'At the conclusion, he was applauded again and again, when he obliged with a short humorous song : |"Dear When ! Look" (Rogers) and Cowen's ' A Birthday Bong' must be credited to Madame Sobrino, who again charmed her listeners. The re-appeared to a clamprous demand for an encore. Fittingly concluding the programme, Mr. Withers played the soli for 'cello "Le Cygno" (Saint-Sons) and "Elfentanz" (Popper). The en-

The above Regulta took place on Saturday u the River. The morning proved a wet one, but later in theafternoon, the clouds gave way to fine weather. At the finishing point, the gunboat Moorhen and Vigilante were placed at the dis posal of the spectators, both the vessels being prettily decorated with bunting. In spite of the inclemency of the weather, the place was well packed with spectators, who enjoyed good afternoon's sport, and loud cheers were given at the finish of each race, all the laun ches blowing a loud continuous blast at the close of the important event. Tea was served at 33 p.m. Owing to some delay the first race started at 1.30 pm, instead of 1, as origin-

DEATH OF DR. PAULUN.

LOSS TO BHANGHAI COMMUNITY. The news of the death of Dr. E. H. Paulun will be learnt with extreme regret by the whole: community. Dr. Paulun was taken to the General Hospital only a few days ago, suffer ing from typhoid fever. Kidney complications set in, and he died at 4 o'clock yesterday morning from uraemia, reports the N. C. D. Neios of oth inst.

Dr. Paulan was born at Passwalk in 1862, and died the day after his 47th birthday. He lost both parents at an early age. Educated first at the Grammar school at Wolfenbittel, he proceeded to the Friedrich Wilhelm University at Berlin, au Army Medical Institution. Having graduated as a doctor, he served, from 1880 to 1890, on S. M. S. Wolf and Illia in Asiatic waters. He left the navy with the rank of Surgeon-Major, and from 1895-6 was assistant to Dr. Zedelius in Shanghale, Then he went down to Hongkong to practise, but returned to Shanghai after the death of Dr. Zedelius in January, 1899, and became his succassor... A year later, while on furlough in Germany, he married Dr. Zedelius' eldest daughter. Dr. Paulun leaves five young children-three daughters and two sons-and his wife also survives him,

Dr. Paulun was one of the best known Germans in Shanghai, net only to his fellowcountrymen, but throughout the entire community. Before he had been here long his practice increased to such an extent that he had to procure a partner, and at the time of his death his firm consisted of three surgeons and three assistant surgeons, as well as an X-ray expert. He founded a charitable hos pital for Chinese some years ago, the natural corollary to which was the German Medical school for Chinese, in Burkill Road. He was a Governor of the General Hospital, a member of the Committee of the German School, in the management of which he took a promirent part-and a member of the committee of the Club Concordia-in which capacity h rendered invaluable service with his suggestions regarding: hygiene in the new building, To all Shanghai, however, he was, first and foremost a surgeon. The nickname by which he was familiarly known was a compliment alike, to, his skill and nerve. Many persons owe their lives to his promptness and decision. In good or bad weather, at any hour of the day or night, he was always at the disposal of his patients, and he treated those from whom he knew he could receive no fee with the same consideration as the wealthy. Many of his poor partents can tell of kindly acts, of money unostentatiously given them for a much needed holiday, of his care and patience during their illnesses. Cnly a short time before his death Dr. Paulup said that he would have liked to live for another twenty years to carry on the profession of which he was so devoted an exponent. I hough honouts fell thick upon him during his career the most lasting monument of his work will be the tender regard in which his memory will be held by many who had every reason to appreciate his services, and a services The following appreciations of the late Dr. Pauluo have reached us from two members of the Jewish community:---

"I would beg for some of your valuable space to offer a small tribute to the late Dr. Paulun. Heartfelt expressions from a better pen than mine regarding this good man will be amongst all classes and all nationalities of this sure to appear elsewhere, for his loss will be felt all over the Far East.

I am certain I shall be voicing the unanimous sentiments of my co-religionists, who mourn the loss of one whose courtesy to the Jewish community in general and whose charity to their poor were on a level with his medical skill. The Jewish poor never had to wait long when in need of him, and besides obtaining careful attention from him, many are the cases when his purse came substantially to their aid

In a profession where all that is mos humane and forbearing can be called int daily play, Dr. Paulun seemed to welcome what must have been a great strain to a busy man's constitution.

His memory will be ever cherished by us.

The second writes:-"Seldom has Shangbai felt so deeply shock ed and staggered at the death of one of it best known citizens as in the case of that lofty spotless soul has departed to inherit spiritual happiness and everlasting bliss. If ever the ethical Jewish maxim: "The memory of the righteous is a blessing," has found its fulfil ment, it applies to the death of the departed. man strong in his intellectual capacity and faithful in his sphere of activity, even to the

When the news of his demise was circulate ed, many were thunder-struck, although the end was not wholly unexpected. The deceased was highly respected by all those who had come in contact with him and had thus enable personality. As a charitable and benevolent manhe waseverready losuccourthe poor especially those afflicted with disease, while his smiling face has always added much charm and relief to the sufferings of the patients. He was a time worker in the vineyard of the Lord and he looked upon his profession not from a mercenary point of view, but as one imbued with the spirit of humanitarian zeal and enthusiasm. The good be did cannot be hid and the sorrowing faces evidenced everywhere in the Saitlements yesterday was a striking testimony to the warm and affectionate regard in which he was held. His passing away has created a gap which will be hard to fill. Many will miss him's many will feel his death with poignant regret. He died in tharness; and his life was ppt spent in vain.

In peace at last, all tirals past, His Me has been recorded

. If ever there was a man who deserved that his memory should be held in honour and reverence, it is ho. Of his splendid achievements and untiring energy in his profession need not speak.

"Great in his art and pserless in resource "He strove the friend of human pain to quell "Nor ever champion dated so bold a course "With truer heart, or weapons proved so

But it is even more by his greatness of heart and his abundant and unostentations charity that he endeared himself to so many amongst us and has left behind him a record probably unsurpassed in our local history. The funeral is to take place on Sunday afternoon and if the usual course be followed, not one-tenth of those who loved him and mourn his loss can be accommodated in the small chapel at the Cemetery." If it is not too late, may I, therefore, suggest that the good Doctor's memory should be honoured by something in the nature of a public funeral -with a preliminary service in his own Church? When the last sad rites are over, it will be time enough to consider what monument shall be erected to his memory; certainly some scheme will be devised which will meet with the support of the Doctor's many admirers Community.- I am, etc.,

THE HONGKONG BANK: Mr. Charles Duguid, the financial editor.

writes in the World of the 19th ult:-Now that it is showing recovery from the recent dividend check, the attention of in vestors might well be redirected to the shares of the Hougkong and Shanghai Bank, which plays such a prominent part in the ramification of British fittance in the Far East. Despite its confined title, the bank, besides its head office in Hongkong, has offices all over the world -in London, New York, San Francisco, Hamburg, Lyons, India, Burms, China, Japan, the Straits Settlements, the Dutch East Indies. and Siam. For each of the years 1905 and 1906 the distribution was 41. 10s, a share, butfor 1907 there was a setback to 31, 155, of which 12. 15s. was paid for the first half of the year and 21. for the second. For the first half of last year 21. was paid, and now for the second half a distribution of 21, 5s, is announced, making 41. 5s. for the whole year-an itcrease of 10s. The shares are of the denomi nation of 125 dollars, but the dividends are declared in sterling, and there is the important advantage for a bank share that they are fully paid. Since the dividend announcement the shares have risen to 861, each, at which they yield st. ss. od, per cent, on the basis of 41, 5s a share; and sector that big dividends have been maintained on a largely increased capital, there seems good reason to hope that the rapid advance in dividends has now been resumed It is worth noting that not so long ago, when the dividend was only 50, a share more, the shares stood as high as 1151, nearly thirty points . Telegraph (daily and weekly issues) will be as above their present quotation.

> D. NOMA, PROFESSIONAL TATTOOER;

THE EXPERT REMOVER OF TATTOO MARKS, No. 60 QUEEN'S ROAD, CENTRAL.

PATRONISED by Prince of Wales, then H. R. H. The Duke of York, and H. R. H. The Emperor of Russia, and having 4,500 testimonials from all sources.

My 34 years' experience in tattooing is a guarantee of good work and prompt execution. My colours are absolutely fast and periectly barmless, and produce a charming effect not attained by any other, as their composition is only known to me. In tattooing unlike some species of jugravings, care must be taken to have the work done in a perfect, high toned manner. In order to take special precaution against possible dangers, I use fresh materials daily.

The copying of Portraits with distinct minuteness a speciality. Hongkong, 1st September, 1003.
